

Direct Access States

- 28 states allow dental hygienists to administer services to patients via direct access—without the prior authorization or presence of a dentist

